

News of the Resorts, Mountain and Shore

Beatrice Clarke To Become a Lenox Bride in September

1,800 Invitations Are Issued for Marriage to George Clifford T. Remington, of Naval Training Station

Special Dispatch to The Tribune
LENOX, Mass., Aug. 21.—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shields Clarke issued this week 1,800 invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Beatrice Clarke, to George Clifford T. Remington, of Naval Training Station, which is to take place September 4. As Mr. Remington is in the navy, being stationed at the Great Lakes Naval Training Station, it is to be a naval wedding. The Rev. Latta Griswold, rector of Trinity, will be assisted by Senior Chaplain Frank Thompson, captain, U. S. N. Miss Clarke is to have her sister, Miss Alma Clarke, as her principal attendant, while little Agnes McCrea, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. McCrea, of New York, will be the flower girl, and Leonard Thomas Jr., of Philadelphia, will act as page.

Mr. Remington, who is a Yale man, has chosen for his best man Thomas Coldecott Chubb, of Orange, N. J., and the ushers will be Warren Sturgis McCulloch, of Orange, Frank Bernard Stubbs and Thomas Hall, of New York; George Dexter Bradford, of New York; George Armistead, of Philadelphia; and Charles J. Clarke, brother of the bride.

Miss Clarke's mother gave a luncheon party in her honor at Fernbrook on Wednesday. The guests included Miss Anna R. Alexander, Miss Grace Bristed, Miss Theresa Higginson, Miss Rosemary Crane, Miss Elizabeth Love Godwin, Miss Frances Bryant Godwin, Miss Nancy Osborne, Miss Helen Reed and Mrs. Frederick Sharpe Crofts.

The annual Stockbridge tennis tournament, with tea each afternoon at the clubhouse, was the principal event of the week in that town. Those who poured were Mrs. Daniel Chester French, Miss Mary Weyman and Mrs. Carl A. de Gersdorff.

The remaining day reception for the first day of the twelfth annual Stockbridge exhibition will take place next Saturday afternoon. The committee for the exhibition consists of Walter Nettleton, chairman; Misses Edna Field Emmet and Marie O. Kobbé; Daniel Chester French, Clark G. Voorhees, August Lukeman and John C. Johnson.

Mrs. Grand Foster gave a luncheon Tuesday for Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey M. Depew, who are at the Aspinwall Hotel, and Charles Lanier entertained at dinner for them that evening.

Miss Emily Tuckerman gave a luncheon Monday for Mrs. J. Montgomery Sears, of Boston, who was with Mrs. Joseph H. Choate.

Mrs. W. Murray Crane, Mrs. John E. Parsons and Mrs. George Winthrop Folsom were among others who entertained during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis L. Lorillard, who were at the Red Lion Inn at Stockbridge early in the week, went to the Adirondacks Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Presbury and Mr. and Mrs. George Callendine Heck, of New York, also were at the inn.

The Bulgarian Minister at Washington, Stephan B. Danoff, and Mme. Danoff, and Dr. Philip Brown, of Princeton, N. J., stopped at the Maplewood Hotel at Pittsfield while touring the Berkshires. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence W. Churchill, of New York, also were there.

Curtis Hunt arrivals include Mr. and Mrs. Edward D. DeLafield, of New York; and Mrs. Samuel Russell, of Middletown, Conn. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Endicott and Miss Barbara Endicott, of Boston. Mrs. H. Van Kleeck Gilmore, of New York, was the guest at Curtis Hunt, of Miss Ellen D. Hunt, of New York.

Miss Kate Cary is in charge of a circus at the Berkshire Home for Crippled Children in Pittsfield, next Wednesday. Assisting her are Mrs. Daniel Paine Griswold, Miss Rosemary Crane, Mrs. Charles W. Power and Mrs. Arthur H. Wood, of Pittsfield. The story boys of the circus, which was founded by Mrs. Frederick S. Coolidge, will take part.

Ekwanok Golf Team Wins Vermont Championship
Arthur L. Walker, of New York, Successfully Defends Title in State Tournament

Special Dispatch to The Tribune
MANCHESTER-IN-THE-MOUNTAINS, Vt., Aug. 21.—The Ekwanok golf team won the Governor McCullough Cup at the Vermont state golf championship tournament at Brattleboro, and Arthur L. Walker Jr., of New York, who played as Ekwanok representative, successfully defended his title and is the 1920 Vermont champion. The members of the Ekwanok team, aside from Mr. Walker, were Mr. Clark Burnham, of Brooklyn; Frank Crocker, of Boston; and the Rev. Dumas Clarke, of Manchester.

The Garden Club held an exhibition of flowers Thursday at the gymnasium. Among the larger gardens represented were those of Clarence M. Clark, of Philadelphia; Robert T. Lincoln, of Washington; Mrs. James L. Taylor, of Brooklyn; Mrs. J. G. Gantner, of S. I. S. and Miss Alice B. Fox, of New York, and Mrs. W. H. McClure, of Albany.

Among those joining their families at summer homes here are John L. Given, J. F. Montgomery and Bartlett A.riel, of New York.

The program just issued for the annual Equinox Cup golf tournament at the Ekwanok Country Club calls for a qualifying round of eighteen holes to be played September 1, followed by three days of match play, elimination rounds, with the final matches coming September 4. The Labor Day handicaps will be played September 6.

Mrs. E. S. Graves entertained a party of forty at Brookside on Monday in honor of Miss Katherine Dana, of Lawrence, L. I.

Recent arrivals from New York at the Equinox House include Byron E. Newton, James Barber, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Mackenbach, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Hollins, Miss Marion Hollins, Mrs. Alice Quencer, Mr. and Mrs. Edward O'Neill, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Greene, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Frew, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Lawrence, Craig Colgate, M. G. Bogue, Miss Peggy Johnston, Stoddard P. Johnston, Mrs. Julie P. Darling, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Murdoch, Mr. and Mrs. Ramon George, George C. Hollister, W. J. Dickerman and Dr. Mrs. W. P. Barnes.

Arrivals at the Worthy Inn from New York include Mr. and Mrs. William Minder, H. D. Wright, G. H. M. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Holliman, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Clark T. Chambers, Hugh L. Gorman and Lee A. Agnew.

Asbury Park's Queen and Four of Her Maids

Cairo County Fair Lures Vacationists In Catskill Region

Much of Social Activity Centers at Maple Lawn, Where Masquerade Ball and Barn Dance Lead

Special Dispatch to The Tribune
CAIRO, N. Y., Aug. 21.—All the roads throughout the Catskill Mountains led to Cairo this week. The annual fair of the Greene County Agricultural Society, held at Cairo Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, brought the vacationists from every part of the Catskills in larger numbers than ever before. The program was the most attractive ever presented here and the races were more interesting than in former seasons because of the more liberal purses.

Much of the social activity centered in the vicinity of Maple Lawn. A masquerade ball and a barn dance, the most important events, attracted a large number of vacationists from other hotels in the vicinity.

Among the recent arrivals at Maple Lawn are Miss L. Messner, Miss Anna Messner, Miss Maie Brady, Ambrose Brady Jr., Joseph Quinn, Mrs. J. Quinn, Miss May Quinn, Miss Florence Quinn, Miss Daly, Joseph Shor, Miss Sillie Hogan, Miss Helen Riley, James Copula, Joseph Frutti, M. Rogers, Mrs. Rogers, George Fyfe, Charles Eckhardt, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Good, A. Saunders, James V. Carroll and G. T. Graham, all of New York.

Some idea of the importance of Catskill as an automobile gateway to the mountains was illustrated to-day when more than 500 automobiles met the Hudson River Day Line boat on its arrival here to convey passengers to points in the vicinity and by the fact that last Saturday an hour's count of the cars passing over one of the streets in the village showed a total of 139 touring cars.

The growing popularity of the Leeds and Green Lake sections of Greene County was in evidence to-night by the fact that it was impossible to obtain a room at any of the hotels or boarding houses in that section.

At the Elizabeth House at Leeds the latest arrivals include: Miss Winifred Jenkins, Miss A. Lochman, George Frazier, Richard Walters, Miss Catherine Conney, the Misses Peterson, Miss H. Anderson, James McNamara, Walter Higginbotham, Mr. and Mrs. W. Murphy, Mrs. McMurphy, J. H. Hunt, Mrs. K. Sunderman, Mrs. H. Knapp, Charles Hoffman and E. Pitcher, all of New York.

Arrivals at the Perry House at Green Lake during the week include: Miss Lawrence, Miss B. Connelly, Miss B. Treiser, Miss L. Burns, Miss G. Holly, George Quinn, Miss Quinn, Miss D. Burke, Miss E. Barry, Miss F. Callahan and Miss T. Emmett.

Vacationists at Palenville turned out in numbers Tuesday to make the annual lawn party of the Ladies Aid Society of the Gloria Dei Church there a success.

The tennis players at the Rip Van Winkle Golf and Country Club at Palenville have been in evidence this week as the result of getting in form for the Inter-mountain tennis championship tournament, to be held there the first week in September, when the local club, now holder of the championship trophy, won at the Grant House grounds last season, will endeavor to retain the prize.

Hotel Kauterskill increased again this week, and from now until the closing of the hotel after Labor Day, it will be the busiest place at the summit of the mountains.

Swimmers at New Castle Golf and Dancing Help Enliven Week for Sojourners

Special Dispatch to The Tribune
NEW CASTLE-BY-THE-SEA, N. H., Aug. 21.—The week was enlivened here by a large swimming carnival, while golf, dancing and many social functions occupied the attention of the summer visitors.

The swimming carnival Miss Kittle Conville, of New York, won the young ladies' race, while that for young men went to Milton Jaffee, of Lawrenceville, Miss Frances Elliott, of Philadelphia, was first in a girls' race.

Arrivals at the Hotel Wentworth include Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Green, Mr. and Mrs. H. Kerwin, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. S. M. Luce, Dr. and Mrs. A. G. Osgood, K. Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schaefer, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Conville, Miss Kittle Conville, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Brookway, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Jaffee, Mrs. C. D. Jaffee and Milton Jaffee, of Brooklyn, and Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Sayles and the Misses Sayles, of Irvington-on-Hudson.

Here are five members of the court which will preside over the baby parade on August 31. They are (above) Miss Anna Straub, of Asbury Park; Miss Ila Hopkins, of Asbury Park; Miss Myrtle Pullen, of Asbury Park; Miss Vera May Prosky, of Paterson, N. J.; and Miss Natalie Watson, of New York.

Women of Society Become Cooks in White Mountains

Lure of the Breezy Hills Impels Many to Lay Aside Frills, Don Khaki and Prepare the Morning Meal

Special Dispatch to The Tribune
WHITE MOUNTAINS, N. H., Aug. 21.—Up in the breeze-blown heights of New Hampshire society is enjoying a healthy, happy summer with no end of golf, mountain climbing and outdoor sports, which also include swimming and fishing. The lure of the Appalachian Mountain Club's net, and their sheltering camps and huts, proves too strong for many a woman who lays aside feathers and frills for the line being, dons khaki and takes to the mountains, helping cook early breakfasts and sometimes catches the trout for them.

Several large luncheons and putting matches were given at Bretton Woods this week. Mrs. Arthur Lea, of Philadelphia, having a ladies' luncheon on Saturday and Mrs. John N. Conyngham, entertaining twenty-one at luncheon on Wednesday.

Mrs. Frank T. Sage, of Rochester, and Mrs. Mary Seull, of Philadelphia, won prizes at Thursday's bridge party at the Balsams. A luncheon was given there this week by Mr. and Mrs. C. Feigenbaum, who had twelve guests.

Miss Charlotte Casgrain gave a dinner at the Mountain View House at Whitefield this week for several of her house guests. Miss S. E. Compton of Lakewood and Mrs. Ralph Carleton of Springfield, Mass., were hostesses at tea on Sunday. Mrs. Edward T. Wilson, of New York, and Miss B. Eddy, of Boston, gave prizes for a card party of twenty tables there this week.

Mrs. W. P. Conville, of New York, gave a dinner at her Profile Cottage this week for Mrs. Charles Cooper of New York. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jackson, of Islip, L. I., have arrived at Mrs. F. W. Jackson's cottage.

The Crawford House at Crawford Notch held its annual golf tournament this week and on the committee was Mrs. Arthur Holbrook, who motored here from Yonkers.

Mrs. C. E. Gilbert, of Hartford, who has been joined at Crawford by her son, C. Allan Gilbert, gave a large party at the Mountain View House, where Mrs. Alfred Skitt, of Yonkers, was also hostess. Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Livingston and Frederick Everett Thompson, of New York, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford V. Brookway, of Glen Cove, L. I., and Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Conable, of Wilmington, Del., are among recent arrivals at Crawford.

The Maplewood Hotel and Inn have an active colony and the annual mid-summer ball was held there to-night. The ball at the Sinclair House in Bethlehem last Saturday was a brilliant event. Mrs. D. S. Harrington received the guests.

Governor Edwards To Review Baby Parade at Asbury

More Than 400 Are Entered in Show To Be Held Aug. 31. Followed by Queen's "Mother Goose" Party

Special Dispatch to The Tribune
ASBURY PARK, N. J., Aug. 21.—More than 400 entries for the baby parade to be held August 31 have been received by the committee. An amphitheater which will seat 10,000 persons is being erected on Ocean Avenue, near the Boardwalk. Governor Edwards and his staff will sit in the amphitheater, as will the queen of the show and her court. The line of march of the parade will be down Ocean Avenue to the amphitheater, which will be circled, passing in review before the Governor on one side, and the queen and her attendants on the other.

On the night of the parade the queen and her maids will be entertained at a "Mother Goose" party at the Montebay Hotel. All those present will be continued to represent the children in the Mother Goose stories. A program of dances, recitations and games will be presented. The affair will take the form of a Mardi Gras and there will be confetti and streamers galore. A throne for the queen will be erected and the little ruler of Asbury Park for a day will hold court.

His Hopkins, who is the Queen Titiana of the baby parade, has sent out invitations to her court for a luncheon and theater party August 28. The luncheon will be held at the Metropolitan Hotel, followed by a musical copulation Hotel, followed by a musical party at the Savoy Theater. A special party also is being arranged for Titiana's two little pages, Margaret Sticker and Jane Polhemus.

Nina Morgana, the Metropolitan Opera Company soprano, was one of the four Metropolitan soloists at the regular Arcade opera night Thursday. The others were Edwina Dug, soprano; Helena Marsh, contralto, and Vincente Ballister, baritone.

The members of the Asbury Park Chamber of Commerce were the guests at a dinner in the New Monterey last night. Plans aiming to make Asbury Park as well known a winter resort as it is a summer resort were discussed.

GRAND RAPIDS SALE
1921 Models in Period DINING ROOM & BEDROOM SUITES 20% to 50% OFF

A sale that gives you better than the ordinary at prices below the regular. Our affiliations with buyers who dominate the market enable us to secure the best at the greatest discounts. These beautiful Bedroom and Dining Room Suites are fresh from the makers' exhibits—magnificent creations in American Walnut and Mahogany priced so low that you must see the suites to appreciate the quality.

Among those at Roxmor Inn are: Miss Aronson Costakuy, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Whittier, S. J. Caldwell, John W. Griffin, Dr. and Mrs. L. S. Loizeaux, Miss May Lyng Upjohn, Mr. and Mrs. William Holloway, J. P. Badu, Mrs. M. N. Ordant, M. H. Dix, Mr. and Mrs. M. Pabry and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Price, of New York.

Churchill Hall was the scene of a masquerade ball Thursday night that culminated in brilliancy any of the season's events there.

The concert at the Roxmor Inn last Sunday night, a children's dance, a card party and dances have been the leading events of the week enjoyed by the largest number of guests who ever have been registered there.

Among those at Roxmor Inn are: Miss Aronson Costakuy, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Whittier, S. J. Caldwell, John W. Griffin, Dr. and Mrs. L. S. Loizeaux, Miss May Lyng Upjohn, Mr. and Mrs. William Holloway, J. P. Badu, Mrs. M. N. Ordant, M. H. Dix, Mr. and Mrs. M. Pabry and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Price, of New York.

Churchill Hall was the scene of a masquerade ball Thursday night that culminated in brilliancy any of the season's events there.

The concert at the Roxmor Inn last Sunday night, a children's dance, a card party and dances have been the leading events of the week enjoyed by the largest number of guests who ever have been registered there.

Among those at Roxmor Inn are: Miss Aronson Costakuy, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Whittier, S. J. Caldwell, John W. Griffin, Dr. and Mrs. L. S. Loizeaux, Miss May Lyng Upjohn, Mr. and Mrs. William Holloway, J. P. Badu, Mrs. M. N. Ordant, M. H. Dix, Mr. and Mrs. M. Pabry and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Price, of New York.

Churchill Hall was the scene of a masquerade ball Thursday night that culminated in brilliancy any of the season's events there.

The concert at the Roxmor Inn last Sunday night, a children's dance, a card party and dances have been the leading events of the week enjoyed by the largest number of guests who ever have been registered there.

Among those at Roxmor Inn are: Miss Aronson Costakuy, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Whittier, S. J. Caldwell, John W. Griffin, Dr. and Mrs. L. S. Loizeaux, Miss May Lyng Upjohn, Mr. and Mrs. William Holloway, J. P. Badu, Mrs. M. N. Ordant, M. H. Dix, Mr. and Mrs. M. Pabry and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Price, of New York.

Governor Enjoys Brief Sojourn at Paul Smith's Hotel

New York's Chief Executive and Party Ride on Lakes; Miss Helen James-Becomes Bride of H. H. Anderson

Special Dispatch to The Tribune
PAUL SMITH'S, N. Y., Aug. 21.—Although his time was limited, Governor Smith enjoyed every moment of his sojourn here on Monday and Tuesday. Soon after his arrival Monday the Governor and Mrs. Smith and the members of their party, which included the Misses Emily and Catherine Smith, Miss Rose Pedrick and Miss Julia Manning, of New York, and Mrs. Josephine Spencer, Arthur Smith, Walter Smith and W. A. Humphrey, of Albany, enjoyed an electric launch trip through the St. Regis Chain of Lakes. Following dinner, the members of the party joined in the dancing in the grill.

The Governor, who is deeply interested in the work of the Conservation Commission, availed himself of the opportunity to study on the ground the steps being taken to guard against forest fires here in the heart of the Adirondacks.

Miss Helen James, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Walter B. James, and Henry Hill Anderson, son of Henry Burrill Anderson, of New York, were married to-day in the chapel of St. John's-in-the-Wilderness, the Rev. Ernest M. Stires, D. D., rector of St. Thomas's, New York, officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Haywood McAlpin, who have been visiting his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. McAlpin 2d, at their camp on Branch Lake, have returned to Camp Wyndover, on Spillville Lake, rejoining W. W. McAlpin, Mr. and Mrs. T. Edward Hambleton, Mrs. Jack Symington and Mrs. Jesse Boynton, of Baltimore, and Miss Louise P. Davenport, of New York, are members of a W. W. McAlpin house party.

Edmund Hall Penfold, of New York, has as his guest the Rev. W. B. Lusk. Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Hutton, of New York, have returned from a trip to Fourth Lake, of the Fulton chain, to their camp on the Upper St. Regis.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ziegler, who have been on a motor tour of the mountains, have returned to their camp on Pearl Island, Upper St. Regis Lake. Mrs. George Emile Starr, of Philadelphia, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Preston Gibson, has taken apartments at the hotel for the remainder of the season.

Most enjoyable of the events of the season among the campers was the recent annual afternoon musicale at the Upper St. Regis camp of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Coats, of Philadelphia.

Among those who entertained with great parties during the week are Mr. and Mrs. Preston Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Darte, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Noble, Mrs. George Fales Baker and Dr. A. T. McLaughlin.

Among the golfers there was keen interest this week in the foursome between James Maiden, of the Nassau Country Club, paired with Dr. W. T. McLaughlin, of New York, and John E. Birmingham, of New York, also of the Nassau Club, and Henry McMullen, of Montreal, in which Mr. Birmingham and Mr. McMullen, although allowed 1 foot and 1 in, were defeated 2 and 1.

Mrs. H. L. Preston, of New York, has returned to her cottage at Paul Smith's. Lieutenant Commander H. M. Bonis and Lieutenant Commander R. W. Clark, U. S. N., are here as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Watson, of New York, for a fortnight.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Henry and Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Miller, of New York, have arrived at Paul Smith's Hotel for the remainder of the season. Others from New York who have arrived include Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius P. Rowland, Mrs. Robert Adrian, Robert Adrian Jr., Mr. and Mrs. W. McMartin Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Thornton B. Barnes, Mrs. V. E. Cammish, Dr. and Mrs. Dickson G. Thompson, Miss Mildred Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Daley and family and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Boyd.

Children's Cotillion Is Leading Event In New London

Dr. and Mrs. Herreshoff Give Dinner for Mrs. G. Maynard Minor, President General of National D. A. R.

Special Dispatch to The Tribune
NEW LONDON, Conn., Aug. 21.—The dinner given by Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Francis Herreshoff to Mrs. George Maynard Minor, president general of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and the children's annual cotillion were the principal social events of the week at the Hotel Griswold, although there were many smaller affairs—tea dances, bridge luncheons and supper parties in the grill. At the dinner to Mrs. Minor the table was elaborately decorated with flowers, the centerpiece being a large sailing vessel filled with blossoms representing the Resolute. Each guest received a tiny ship, a miniature of the America's Cup winner. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. George W. White, of Washington, the latter being national curator general of the D. A. R.; Mrs. John Laidlaw Duell, Mrs. Charles H. Bissell, Mrs. Irma Grey Ridley, Mrs. F. J. Ridley, E. D. Livingston and Ridley Enslow. An informal reception followed, at which the guests of the hotel were presented to Mrs. Minor, who is passing the summer at Waterford, where she maintains a studio.

The children's cotillion on Wednesday brought out an unusually large contingent of guests of the hotel as well as cottagers from Eastern Point, the Pequot colony and New London. The children, with their vari-colored caps, balloons, hoops and rings, turned the ballroom into fairyland. Betty, Frances and Jean Sloper, the little daughters of Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Sloper, of the cottage colony, danced the daisy chain. Other features were the French baby by Georgiana Kohn, Shepherd's Pipes, with Jean Sloper and Frances Sloper as Columbine; a fox trot by Dorothy and Eleanor Talcott, and Henry and Georgiana Kohn in a unique version of the fox trot. Helen Sloan, seven years old, carried off the honors of the evening with three specialty numbers.

The annual Shenecossett men's amateur golf tournament this week attracted a large gallery, parties motoring from all parts of New England as well as from New York and Philadelphia for the event. Tom D. Armour, amateur champion of France, was among the entrants. Other well known amateur players were N. A. Dempsey, who won the qualifying 1920 medal at 73; Philip Corbin, H. S. Lake, of Bridgeport, and C. A. Griscom and James Bush, of Watch Hill and New York.

Among those who motored from New York for the event were Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Laurino, Mrs. W. H. McIlmerton, Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. McKinnon, B. W. Beraerole, J. J. Grant, F. M. Gilmore, Walter H. Merrill, J. H. Cullen, George H. Maxwell, T. H. Wright, Stillman Lewis and George Webb.

Elaborate preparations are being made for the annual fancy dress ball to be held next Friday. Miss Helen Brown, who gained a reputation as a dancer last winter in "Aphrodite" as one of the twelve butterfly dancers, will give several exhibition dances. Miss Lucia Chase will be among the dancers in costume. Mrs. Jesse Rice, who is at the Griswold, will wear the elaborate Egyptian costume which made her a marked figure at the Beauvau ball in New York last winter. Mrs. Irving Chase, of New York, who is spending the summer at Narragansett Pier, will motor over for the event with a party including Mr. and Mrs. Taft. Mrs. Malcolm Graham, Mrs. George A. Fox, accompanied by Austin G. Fox Jr. and Mrs. John C. A. Gerster, motored from Long Island, and are at the Griswold.

Mrs. Russell Cobb and Donald Mackay arrived from New York by motor. Mrs. Newbold Morris, motored from Lenox with George L. K. and S. V. C. Morris to the Griswold.

Mrs. Malcolm Graham, Mrs. George A. Fox, accompanied by Austin G. Fox Jr. and Mrs. John C. A. Gerster, motored from Long Island, and are at the Griswold.

Mrs. Russell Cobb and Donald Mackay arrived from New York by motor. Mrs. Newbold Morris, motored from Lenox with George L. K. and S. V. C. Morris to the Griswold.

Mrs. Malcolm Graham, Mrs. George A. Fox, accompanied by Austin G. Fox Jr. and Mrs. John C. A. Gerster, motored from Long Island, and are at the Griswold.

Mrs. Russell Cobb and Donald Mackay arrived from New York by motor. Mrs. Newbold Morris, motored from Lenox with George L. K. and S. V. C. Morris to the Griswold.

Mrs. Malcolm Graham, Mrs. George A. Fox, accompanied by Austin G. Fox Jr. and Mrs. John C. A. Gerster, motored from Long Island, and are at the Griswold.

Mrs. Russell Cobb and Donald Mackay arrived from New York by motor. Mrs. Newbold Morris, motored from Lenox with George L. K. and S. V. C. Morris to the Griswold.

Mrs. Malcolm Graham, Mrs. George A. Fox, accompanied by Austin G. Fox Jr. and Mrs. John C. A. Gerster, motored from Long Island, and are at the Griswold.

Mrs. Russell Cobb and Donald Mackay arrived from New York by motor. Mrs. Newbold Morris, motored from Lenox with George L. K. and S. V. C. Morris to the Griswold.

Mrs. Malcolm Graham, Mrs. George A. Fox, accompanied by Austin G. Fox Jr. and Mrs. John C. A. Gerster, motored from Long Island, and are at the Griswold.

Mrs. Russell Cobb and Donald Mackay arrived from New York by motor. Mrs. Newbold Morris, motored from Lenox with George L. K. and S. V. C. Morris to the Griswold.

Mrs. Malcolm Graham, Mrs. George A. Fox, accompanied by Austin G. Fox Jr. and Mrs. John C. A. Gerster, motored from Long Island, and are at the Griswold.

Mrs. Russell Cobb and Donald Mackay arrived from New York by motor. Mrs. Newbold Morris, motored from Lenox with George L. K. and S. V. C. Morris to the Griswold.

Mrs. Malcolm Graham, Mrs. George A. Fox, accompanied by Austin G. Fox Jr. and Mrs. John C. A. Gerster, motored from Long Island, and are at the Griswold.

Mrs. Russell Cobb and Donald Mackay arrived from New York by motor. Mrs. Newbold Morris, motored from Lenox with George L. K. and S. V. C. Morris to the Griswold.

Mrs. Malcolm Graham, Mrs. George A. Fox, accompanied by Austin G. Fox Jr. and Mrs. John C. A. Gerster, motored from Long Island, and are at the Griswold.

Mrs. Russell Cobb and Donald Mackay arrived from New York by motor. Mrs. Newbold Morris, motored from Lenox with George L. K. and S. V. C. Morris to the Griswold.

Mrs. Malcolm Graham, Mrs. George A. Fox, accompanied by Austin G. Fox Jr. and Mrs. John C. A. Gerster, motored from Long Island, and are at the Griswold.

Mrs. Russell Cobb and Donald Mackay arrived from New York by motor. Mrs. Newbold Morris, motored from Lenox with George L. K. and S. V. C. Morris to the Griswold.

Mrs. Malcolm Graham, Mrs. George A. Fox, accompanied by Austin G. Fox Jr. and Mrs. John C. A. Gerster, motored from Long Island, and are at the Griswold.

York for the event were Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Laurino, Mrs. W. H. McIlmerton, Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. McKinnon, B. W. Beraerole, J. J. Grant, F. M. Gilmore, Walter H. Merrill, J. H. Cullen, George H. Maxwell, T. H. Wright, Stillman Lewis and George Webb.

Elaborate preparations are being made for the annual fancy dress ball to be held next Friday. Miss Helen Brown, who gained a reputation as a dancer last winter in "Aphrodite" as one of the twelve butterfly dancers, will give several exhibition dances.

Miss Lucia Chase will be among the dancers in costume. Mrs. Jesse Rice, who is at the Griswold, will wear the elaborate Egyptian costume which made her a marked figure at the Beauvau ball in New York last winter. Mrs. Irving Chase, of New York, who is spending the summer at Narragansett Pier, will motor over for the event with a party including Mr. and Mrs. Taft.

Mrs. Malcolm Graham, Mrs. George A. Fox, accompanied by Austin G. Fox Jr. and Mrs. John C. A. Gerster, motored from Long Island, and are at the Griswold.

Mrs. Russell Cobb and Donald Mackay arrived from New York by motor. Mrs. Newbold Morris, motored from Lenox with George L. K. and S. V. C. Morris to the Griswold.

Mrs. Malcolm Graham, Mrs. George A. Fox, accompanied by Austin G. Fox Jr. and Mrs. John C. A. Gerster, motored from Long Island, and are at the Griswold.

Mrs. Russell Cobb and Donald Mackay arrived from New York by motor. Mrs. Newbold Morris, motored from Lenox with George L. K. and S. V. C. Morris to the Griswold.

Mrs. Malcolm Graham, Mrs. George A. Fox, accompanied by Austin G. Fox Jr. and Mrs. John C. A. Gerster, motored from Long Island, and are at the Griswold.

Mrs. Russell Cobb and Donald Mackay arrived from New York by motor. Mrs. Newbold Morris, motored from Lenox with George L. K. and S. V. C. Morris to the Griswold.

Mrs. Malcolm Graham, Mrs. George A. Fox, accompanied by Austin G. Fox Jr. and Mrs. John C. A. Gerster, motored from Long Island, and are at the Griswold.